

Neighbors Helping Neighbors Guide

- Step One: Know Your Rights

- Information is powerful, and it is essential that individuals know their rights in different settings. You can educate immigrants in your community about their rights.
 - Provide hard copies of “Red Cards” in different languages, here.
 - Here are some videos to help understand rights in different settings created by We Have Rights: Rights Videos (Available in 8 languages)
 - Know Your Rights Resource with different scenarios \(English Version\)
 - Know Your Rights Resource with different scenarios \(Spanish Version\)
- If an individual encounters immigration officials, here is a link from the National Immigrant Justice Center: Know Your Rights: If You Encounter ICE (Downloads available in English, Spanish, Haitian Creole, and French)
- Make sure to carry copies of valid documentation related to your immigration status, which could be a green card, work permit, visa, etc. Give copies of the original to someone in case it is needed. Don’t carry documents from another country. Here is a great resource on the documents to carry and how to store.

- Step Two: Create a Family/Individual Preparedness Plan

- Individuals who are immigrants can take steps to make sure all information is gathered and actions are taken to protect their family members, financial resources, etc.
- Here is a checklist that outlines the different action steps an individual should take now to have all information gathered and precautions in place in case of detention or deportation: CLINIC Emergency Planning Guide (English and Spanish available; Here is also a translated Haitian Creole version.)
- Complete a Power of Attorney for Children and financial resources
 - Here is a helpful FAQ if families have questions about what a POA is and how to get one.

- Step Three: Find Legal Assistance

- Reputable legal assistance is important when navigating immigration legal concerns.
- Individuals should ensure that their legal representatives are knowledgeable about immigration law. Legal assistance should be received by someone who is licensed in immigration law or who is a Department of Justice (DOJ) accredited representative.

Neighbors Helping Neighbors

We envision our immigrant neighbors thriving with dignity in Central Indiana with access to a unified and responsive Network of Support.

Advocacy Strategies

Belonging as Action

- Host community meals that bring together immigrant neighbors and local residents
- Provide transportation for individuals to attend appointments, school, or complete errands
- Organize walking groups, conversation cafés, and similar community gatherings
- Assist with grocery pickups, deliveries, and other essential needs
- Build partnerships between community organizations and newcomers

Knowledge as Power

- Share Family Preparedness Plans and coordinate safety planning clinics with attorneys
- Spread the word about rapid response networks to support families in urgent situations
- Conduct Know Your Rights presentations and distribute Red Cards
- Educate community members on how to find trustworthy and reputable legal counsel

Legislative Action as Justice

- Advocate against the 287(g) program and encourage sheriffs not to contract with ICE
- Monitor and respond to issues at Miami Correctional Facility and other Indiana detention facilities
- Track and mobilize around upcoming Indiana legislation impacting immigrants
- Support court-watching programs and accompaniment efforts

Time and Resources as Solidarity

- Raise funds for commissary accounts and assist families in locating detained loved ones
- Collect donations to cover legal representation, necessary filing fees, basic needs
- Provide translation and interpretation services to increase accessibility
- Volunteer with local nonprofits and community organizations serving immigrants

Narrative as Change

- Launch social media campaigns to dispel myths and highlight immigrant contributions
- Facilitate community dialogues about the impact of immigrants in local communities
- Share accurate and timely information about immigration-related developments
- Engage with local media to promote informed and compassionate coverage
